Hanged at Last.
CONFESSION IN RHYME!

"Our flag is there!" Ah, you see it loom Before Christopher's Auction and Toy Room!
Our banner is the emblem of our trade, Prime goods, and nice—where bargains can be made.
Our stock consists of every useful thing,
And toys and notions—a variety we bring.
We're "fixed" for Christmas, and for New Year, too, And can supply nice goods all fresh, and bright and new.
We have many good and pretty things—From children's toys to ladies' golden rings—Then can't we name the tenth, if we would try, But come and see the goods—we know you'll say, "Then what you old and young, the goods are nice and cheap,
And buy them singly, or buy them in the heap Buy them by the item, or in the pile!
Their very cheapness will cause you to smile.
Then, come, every body, before the rush sets in as it did last year, when many had to go away disappointed.
We have the largest and best assortment of dolls and babies, of any in the city, and we will give in the West, at any price, to C. W. THOMPSON, Cor. Jefferson and Market.

Weekly Advertisements.
Those who desire to have advertisements inserted in the Weekly Empire should hand in by Saturday morning, at the latest.

Our advertising patrons will perceive that, by our arrangement of reading matter, their advertisements will have a very wide and important circulation.

See 4th page for Telegraph Reports.

President's Message.
A dispatch from Washington says the President's Message will be sent to the Senate to-day at noon. If so, we will probably get it to-morrow, and will present it to the public as soon thereafter as we can put it into type.

FARMER, ATTENTION.—Wanted, 50,000 bu. of corn, in the ear, for which the highest market price will be paid, at CHRISTOPHER'S Auction Room, Jefferson and Market.

WANTED.—Two male or female boarders, in a private family. Terms moderate and accommodations ample. Apply at No. 10, Walnut street.

Lost.—A young rat dog, cropped ears, and long tail, (black,) answering to the name of Jack. I will be thankful to any person for him.
E. O'BRIEN,
Dec 19th.

Last Night.—The Fair for the benefit of the "Sisters of Charity" at Huston Hall will close tonight, with the best of the whole week to top it off. Don't fail to be present.

I. O. S. M.
Meet Wednesday night on business of importance. Every member of the Relief Committee is particularly requested to be present.
By order of
GRAND COM'DR.

CARROLL FAIR.—In consequence of the tickets in the grand prize drawing not being quite all sold the Managers of the Fair have concluded to hold it one night more, (to-night) when the drawing will certainly take place.
Another attractive feature this evening will be the sale, at auction, of a splendid assortment of gift books, fancy articles, toys, &c., &c., suitable for Holiday presents. Don't fail to be on hand to-night as it will be the evening of the Fair.

THE Fair of the Universalist Society is in full tide of success. Huston Hall is nightly filled, and the attractions offered are considered full compensation for the admittance fee, and the money invested for et cetera inside. Go to-night and witness the Tableau of "Saul and the Witch of Endor" which will be reproduced at the request of many who greatly admired it. See the advertisement.

MAYOR COURT DEC. 26TH 1899.—Mary Shehan and Mary Carroll, charged with stealing of Mr. Woodward, were brought before his Honor yesterday, and permitted to plead guilty to the charge of Petit Larceny, and were disposed of as follows: Mary Shehan, a fine of $10 and costs, and Mary Carroll 10 days on bread and water in a dungeon of the jail.

SIXTHS FERRY.—A drunken party of four,
whose names we will not give, on account of this being the first offense some of them, undertook to have a slight ride on Sunday last, and money being rather scarce among them they took forcible possession of a sleigh that was leaving the yard of Messrs. Schieble and Strickler, at the Franklin House, and drove at a tremendous pace through several streets and then returned the sleigh to the owner. The party pled guilty to disorderly conduct and drunkenness. Fine $1 and costs.

FRANKLIN PICARD for carrying concealed weapons was sentenced to 5 days on bread and to pay the costs of prosecution.
Robt Turbyville will be tried to-day for grand larceny together with 3 others.

FURS.—A large lot of ladies' and gentlemen's Furs have just arrived, and are open for exhibition, at 110 Main street, near the Market House. Our citizens are respectfully invited to call and examine the stock. Further particulars will be made known through the city papers.

ET Sunday was a beautiful day, and was a quiet Christmas. Very little disorder was made upon the streets, and considering the occasion and the day, it passed off creditably.
Yesterday—the day for general observance—was a dry and wet under foot, and with the exception of some noisy displays by spiri-tized men, was rather dull. There was no antismania, but plenty of drink. Respectable society, however, preserved the equilibrium of the city, and we are moving steadily again to-day.

CRUEL OUTRAGE BY AN AUSTRIAN SOLDIER.—A letter of Nov. 26, from the Minio, appears in the Opinions. "At Mirasole, near San Benito delto, on the Po, a fisherman was securing his smack, which was in danger of being capsize, when two Austrian soldiers hailed from the opposite bank. As the man did not answer, a soldier fired at him with his rifle. The bullet passed over the fisherman's head and struck in the abdomen of a girl, 13 years of age, who was drawing water near her house."

ET Those who wish to purchase nice ware of every kind, for use or for presents, should call at Heckler, Remley & Maxon's, 2d street, near Main. They are supplied with the choicest articles.

ET The Ohio Farmer will commence a new volume next week, with new type, new head, and increased attractions all over. It is published at Cleveland, and is $2 a year. Send and get it for 1899.

ET Capt. Ayer will accept the thanks of Yr. Printer for creature comforts and inspiring adjectives which were discussed in remembrance of him yesterday.

ET Christopher sold an almost incredible amount of toys last week. He has plenty more for New Year.

nut street.

Lost.—A young rat dog, cropped ears, and
long tail, (black,) answering to the name of
him.
E. O'BRIEN,
Dec 19th.

Last Night.—The Fair for the benefit of the "Sisters of Charity" at Huston Hall will close to-
it off. Don't fail to be present.

I. O. S. M.
Meet Wednesday night on business
of importance. Every member of the Relief Committee is particularly requested to be present.
By order of
GRAND COM'DR.

CARROLL FAIR.—In consequence of the tickets in the grand prize drawing not being quite
all sold the Managers of the Fair have concluded to hold it one night more, (to-night)
when the drawing will certainly take place.
Another attractive feature this evening will be the sale, at auction, of a splendid assortment
of gift books, fancy articles, toys, &c., &c., suitable for Holiday presents. Don't fail to be on hand to-night as it will be the evening of the Fair.

THE Fair of the Universalist Society is in full tide of success. Huston Hall is nightly filled, and the attractions offered are considered
full compensation for the admittance fee, and
the money invested for et cetera inside. Go
to-night and witness the Tableau of "Saul
and the Witch of Endor" which will be reproduced at the request of many who greatly admired it. See the advertisement.

MAYOR COURT DEC. 26TH 1899.—Mary Shehan
and Mary Carroll, charged with stealing of Mr. Woodward, were brought before his Honor yesterday, and permitted to plead guilty to the charge of Petit Larceny, and were disposed of
as follows: Mary Shehan, a fine of $10 and costs, and Mary Carroll 10 days on bread and
water in a dungeon of the jail.

SIXTHS FERRY.—A drunken party of four,
whose names we will not give, on account of
this being the first offense some of them,
undertook to have a slight ride on Sunday
last, and money being rather scarce among them
they took forcible possession of a sleigh that was leaving the yard of Messrs. Schieble and Strickler, at the Franklin House, and drove at
a tremendous pace through several streets and then returned the sleigh to the owner. The
party pled guilty to disorderly conduct and
drunkenness. Fine $1 and costs.

FRANKLIN PICARD for carrying concealed weapons was sentenced to 5 days on bread and
to pay the costs of prosecution.
Robt Turbyville will be tried to-day for grand
larceny together with 3 others.

FURS.—A large lot of ladies' and gentlemen's Furs have just arrived, and are open for exhibition, at 110 Main street, near the Market House. Our citizens are respectfully invited to call and examine the stock. Further par-
papers.

ET Sunday was a beautiful day, and was a quiet Christmas. Very little disorder was
made upon the streets, and considering the occasion and the day, it passed off creditably.
Yesterday—the day for general observance—
was a dry and wet under foot, and with
the exception of some noisy displays by spiri-tized men, was rather dull. There was no antismania, but plenty of drink. Respectable
society, however, preserved the equilibrium
of the city, and we are moving steadily again
to-day.

letter of Nov. 26, from the Minio, appears in
the Opinions. "At Mirasole, near San Benito delto, on the Po, a fisherman was securing his
smack, which was in danger of being capsize,
when two Austrian soldiers hailed from the
opposite bank. As the man did not answer,
a soldier fired at him with his rifle. The bullet passed over the fisherman's head and struck
was drawing water near her house."

every kind, for use or for presents, should call
at Heckler, Remley & Maxon's, 2d street, near Main. They are supplied with the choicest
articles.

ET The Ohio Farmer will commence a new
volume next week, with new type, new head,
and increased attractions all over. It is published at Cleveland, and is $2 a year. Send
and get it for 1899.

ET Capt. Ayer will accept the thanks of
Yr. Printer for creature comforts and inspiring adjectives which were discussed in remembrance of him yesterday.

ET Christopher sold an almost incredible
amount of toys last week. He has plenty
more for New Year.
